The game named above is hereby granted a Certification of Permissibility for operation in New Jersey pursuant to the provisions of the Amusement Games Licensing Law, N.J.S.A. 5:8-100 et seq. ("Law"), and the regulations promulgated thereunder, N.J.A.C. 13:3-1.1 et seq. ("Regulations"). This approval is based upon information supplied by the applicant at the time of application for certification. The game must be operated in accordance with the specifications submitted and the terms of this certification. Any modification of the manufacturer's specifications or the specified method of play immediately voids this certification.

It is unlawful to license or operate any amusement game in the State of New Jersey without a valid Certification of Permissibility or in a manner not in accordance with Certification of Permissibility issued for the game. This Certification of Permissibility contains four pages. This is page 1 of 4.

DESCRIPTION:

Crazy Hat is an attendant operated skill game. The Crazy Hat game is played with a player tossing a wiffle ball into an opening at the top of the hat. The Crazy Hat game constructed of wood and cloth material. There are two circular holes on the Crazy Hat game, the top hole and the hole located at the base of the game. The top hole is a stationary target which makes up the play field located at the top of the hat. The front hole is located at the base of the game and it's function is to return the ball back to the operator. The player wins a prize in accordance with the posted rule of play, not inconsistent with the law, regulations or the conditions of this Certification of Permissibility.
